A few days after this article was published, TikTok announced in response to these concerns that it is conducting an audit of all accounts with unpaid subscription fees. As of April 2021, various media outlets reported that TikTok had managed to identify tens of millions of accounts which were involved in posting content on the platform without having paid for it. The publication also reported that the video service was working with legal and other experts to help recommend steps which could be taken against people who had posted content without paying for it. A representative for TikTok told a news outlet that "We are always taking measures to ensure our community is able to enjoy the best TikTok experience possible. When we identify that an account has been using features without paying subscriptions, we interrupt services so they can upgrade. We also work closely with our legal team to take action against all accounts that don't comply with our Terms of Use."",

Social media website Reddit users are known for posting TikTok videos on the forum. The real-time social video platform has gained popularity. It is mostly used as a replacement to YouTube. Users post videos from their phones or computers to the platform, where they can be viewed by other users and added to their own collections. Users can also post comments and GIFs in a similar fashion as "Reddit" does on its forum section. The platform has gained a reputation for having a lot of vulgar content, but it is generally regarded as more entertaining than the norm.",

In December 2021, the company announced plans to launch a new feature called "TikTok Studio". This feature would allow users to create their own music videos. It was launched in June 2021 with Sony Music and Universal Music Group as a part of the app's expanded release in India. The feature also integrates with Record Labels such as Jingle Punks, Spinnin' Records, Monstercat and Deorro's Deoretik. The feature is available as part of the application on iPhone and Android devices.", TikTok has been criticized for enabling underage children to create videos and share them. The app is rated 17+ in several countries including North America, the United Kingdom and France. However it is rated 12+ in several countries including Australia, Germany and Mexico. The app does not have any parental controls to prevent users younger than age 13 from creating content or sharing it with their followers. As of December 2021, TikTok has over 24 million users under the age of 13 in the United States alone. In December 2021, the company announced an update that would limit access for those under 13 to create videos until they were verified by a parent. The parent would then be able to delete the child's account or delete all content on the account.",

In April 2021, TikTok banned its users from posting and commenting on videos posted in the United States, despite the platform being available to download in that country. The ban was done in accordance to the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA).",

In an attempt to avoid its user base getting older faster than the app's overall demographic, TikTok has made changes to its algorithm so that older content will be pushed out further down in the queue. While this will push some content off the front page, it should keep a stream of new content coming through your feed while also encouraging users to explore other features. "To show the right content to the right audience at the right time, weâ€™re considering personalization across all our platforms and experiences," said Deya Xu, TikTok's chief product officer. "Our work in refining our algorithmsâ€™ and using machine learning to increase relevancyâ€™ is a significant part of how we are doing this.",

In June 2021, TikTok launched an AI-enabled feature to understand the actions of individual users and determine what to share in real time, reducing the amount of social spam on their platform. This is similar to the implementation on Chatroulette and Yik Yak leading up to 2021. The AI system is a collaborative approach between the company and Technicolor AI Lab. The system can use facial recognition technology and timestamps to determine what a user has done recently so that based on that it can then share more relevant videos with other users within the page who also have not done anything recent enough for the AI to detect them. According to the company, this new AI system is capable of reducing the number of social spam videos being shared by 70%.",

The app is available for iOS and Android devices. The app offers videos that users can record themselves, add filters and music and post publicly or privately to the app. Users can also create custom stickers and can accompany their videos with animated emoji called "TikTok" which are meant to express emotions such as laughter or sadness. The company uses artificial intelligence in its video recommendation algorithms to help users find popular videos, allowing them to engage with each other's content as well.",

In late-2021, the Australian government announced that it wanted to shut down Musical.ly and the app was banned in mid-January 2021. The Musical.ly music video app features karaoke-style gameplay and allows users to create videos of themselves lip-syncing songs or dancing to their favorite music. Users can use interactive editing tools such as multiple camera angles, filters, effects and stickers to enhance their videos before posting them on the app (non-uploading users are limited to a small range of editing tools). Users can record videos within the app, or import videos from their phone to edit it and add effects. On the app, users are also able to share their video with friends and get likes and comments."
